U.S. Order Gives Boost To Pipeline

TORONTO (CP) — Industrials were strong but the rest of the stock market was easier amid the lightest trading in almost two months.

Pipelines, motors and banks were the industrial leaders. Foods and refining oils were easier. Trans Mountain Pipe Line was the most active industrial, up ⅞ at 13⅞ on a 48,400 share turnover. Shell Oil Company in the United States said it will take 10,000 barrels of Canadian crude daily through the pipeline to its Anacortes, Wash., refinery. Ford A added 1¾ at 131½.

Uraniums were softer as Consolidated Denison lost ½ at 15½ and Gunnar was off ¼ at 16. Among other mines Geco and Hudson Bay lost ¼. Noranda gained ½ at 51½.

McIntyre led golds lower, off 1 at 83.

In oils Pembina led winners, up ⅜ at 10⅞ and Pacific Pete was up ¼ at 15.

Papers Depressed

MONTREAL (CP) — The industrial section scored its seventh straight advance amid the highest industrial turnover this year.

Bell rights were again the volume — booster with more than 160,000 of the rights changing hands. The rights, which expire April 23, gained 3 cents at 104.

Papers, weak recently, were the biggest losers on the index. Losses extended to a point in a wide range of issues. However the most active paper, Anglo Newfoundland, gained ½ at 6⅞.

Base metals were irregular. Penny mines and oils closed irregularly higher. Montgary gained 12 cents at 105.

Zenith Stock Soars

NEW YORK (UPI)—Industrial stocks rose to new all-time highs despite some profit-taking during most of the session. Trading failed to match Friday's active pace.

Zenith was the star of the day, soaring more than 27 points. Other electronics issues followed Zenith's lead with gains of 1 and 2 points and more.

Thiokol, a rocket fuel manufacturer, ran up around 7 at its high, hit just before the close. Kerr-McGee was strong in the oils.

Today's trading marked the third straight session that the industrial average rose to historic highs. Once again the "blue chip" issues led the advance, with Du Pont, American Telephone, Eastman Kodak, and General Motors all showing strength.

New Highs Made

VANCOUVER — Okanagan Helicopters, Woodward Stores and Trans-Mountain Pipelines were the star performers.

Okanagan at 4.45 and Woodwards at $23 made new highs, while Trans-Mountain was up half-a-point at $13¼.

Mines were mixed with Sheep Creek advancing to 1.67 and Bethlehem easing to 1.61.

Oils were out of favor, with Vantor down to 92 cents and Peace River to 61 cents.

Grain Prices

WINNIPEG (CP) — Broad advances in flax prices highlighted trade with the deferred months scoring new seasonal highs.

Advances in flax were prompted by good export demand. Trade reports indicated parcels of flax had been sold to Britain and other countries. Further demand in flax came from commission houses and international interests, based on reports of higher linseed oil prices on European markets.
